SF-R Zoning Action

The Planning and Zoning Commission recommend council approval and application of the new zoning districts in the SF-R zone. The council will hold the last set of public hearings on these topics on February 4th. The proposed changes will add additional zoning categories, decrease the maximum impervious surface area allowed, increase the minimum lot size, and bring all the lots into conforming status, even if they are smaller than the new proposed lot size. The P&Z recommendation for council consideration are shown on the map:

The council would like your input before they take action. You can attend the meeting in person or submit a statement to Brandy Barrett at bbarrett@cityofwestworth.com, or drop it off at the utility window or in the payment Dropbox to her attention.

Melva Campbell Park

Saturday, January 30th at 10:30 AM is the Melva Campbell Park Dedication Ceremony and ribbon cutting. As stated in Mayor Jones' invitation, "Melva Campbell Park will be the first true park in the city's history. It will be a family-oriented active park, with playground equipment, pavilions, and recreational facilities. In keeping with the city's long affiliation with the navy base, current conceptual plans involve an aviation theme. The golf and parks committee has begun an ambitious planning schedule, utilizing the services of a nationally-renowned parks designer. Look for several public hearings in the spring as we actively seek your input on what you want to see in your park." The current concept can be viewed below, and will also be made available on an easel in the City Hall lobby for citizens to view and provide their comments.
